Reports:

Amidst the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) at Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya Chittaranjan organized a five-day workshop on "Exploring Qualitative Research: Methods, Analysis, and Interpretation". The inauguration of the event took place on September 6, 2021, at 11:00 AM on the ZOOM online platform, witnessing a significant turnout of staff, students, and intrigued individuals from nearby institutions, all lured by the promise of enlightenment from the special lecture on the opening day. The inauguration was graced by the presence of Dr. Tridib Santapa Kundu, Hon'ble Principal of the College, and Prof. Apurbo Kumar Roy, the Coordinator of the IQAC and Associate Professor in the Department of Philosophy. Prof. Roy initiated the workshop with an enlightening discourse on qualitative research methodologies, setting the stage for deeper exploration in the days to come. Next day, Dr. Mukul Kamle, Assistant Professor in the Department of Geography, enriched participants with insights into qualitative data collection techniques and analysis methods, emphasizing their relevance in geographical research. On third day, Mr. Tapan Mukherjee, independent researcher in Language, Literature and Philosophy, shared practical experiences and case studies, providing valuable insights into the interpretation and presentation of qualitative research findings, enhancing participants' understanding of real-world applications. Day 4 was enlightened by Dr. Kundu, leveraging his expertise, guided participants through advanced topics in qualitative research, including reflexivity and ethical considerations, enriching their appreciation of the complexities inherent in qualitative inquiry. The final day of the workshop, led by Dr. Roy, focused on summarizing key learnings and experiences. Registered participants were invited to deliver short presentations on predetermined topics, followed by an interactive question-answer session to deepen understanding and address queries. At the conclusion of the workshop, participants were recognized for their active engagement and dedication with Certificates of Participation. The event culminated with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Soumendra Paul, one of the participants and SACT I in the Department of Bengali, expressing gratitude to all involved for their contributions to the success of the workshop.
