Report:

On March 24, 2023, Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya, Chittaranjan, under the aegis of Internal Quality Assurance Cell and Internal Complaints Committee, observed International Women's Day. The International Women's Day observance was to be postponed due to University Examination. The program was inaugurated by the Honourable Principal of Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya with lamp lighting. He delivered his valuable speech about the importance of the day. The programme included a discussion on the theme of this year "DigitALL: Innovation and technology on gender inequality" and some cultural performances.

The chief speaker of the day was Prof. Gopa Samanta, Department of Geography, Burdwan University. She had query on whether the student present in the hall-both male and female had any problem due to their gender status. Prof. Samanta in her discussion dealt with the issues of gender inequality at various level of our society. The discussion, an enlightening one, was followed by a question-answer session, which was a quite enriching for the audience. Last of all, vote of thank to all concerned including the dignitaries was given by one of the senior faculty members
