Report of Thalassemia Awareness and Detection camp held on 05.01.2024

Thalassemia Awareness and Detection camp, organised by the NSS unit of Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya, Chittaranjan in collaboration with Lions club of Asansol megacity on 05.01.2024, Friday, as a part of the Students' week from 02.01.2024 to 08.01.2024. The programme aimed at spreading awareness to the greater is society around the College i.e. in the locality of Chittaranjan, Rupnarayanpur and adjoining villages. The programme commenced with Rabindra Sangeet "অরূপ তোমার বাণী, অঙ্গে আমার, চিন্তে আমার মুক্তি দিক্‌ সে আনি" (formless is thy message; let it bring emancipation to my inner and outer self. Let me be blessed to have the emancipation) presented by Dr Devlina Chowdhury, Assistant Professor of Bengali.

In the introductory speech, Hon'ble Principal Dr Tridib Santapa Kundu emphasised on the purpose of the programme saying prevention is better than cure. Pre-marital detection of thalassemia can avert this disease.

Sri Tapan Mahata, District Chairperson, Thalassemia Awareness and Detection, in his speech discussed on the technicality of this disease. He pointed out that the probability of taking birth of a child with thalassemia can be averted if and only if both the marital partners are 'Carrier'. That is why this programme was significant.

Dr Vaskar Hazra, Assistant Superintendent of Asansol district hospital dealt with the adverse impact on the patient himself/ herself as well as on the family of the patient. The cost of medical treatment including blood transfusion at regular interval is as much as Rs 2.5 lakh per annum if government aid is not available. In addition to that if a thalassemia patient is further victim of any other complicated disease, then the problem gets compounded. In spite of best possible medical support, a thalassemia patient's life span is very limited.

The total number of students participated in detection test was 61 of them 48 were girls and 13 boys.

Among other of the dignitaries present were Sri Debdutta Prasad, Deputy Cabinet Secretary, Sri Sarban Agarwalla, Secretary, Lions club of Megacity, Shatrughun Sharma, President, Lions Club Megacity.

The anchoring was done by Prof. Tirtha Mondal.

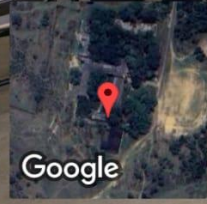

The programme ended with vote of thanks delivered by Sri Braja Gopal Goswami.

Report on Swami Vivekananda's birthday:

Swami Vivekananda's birthday 12 January is observed as the National Youth Day. Our College Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya too is no exception in this respect. A programme on the occasion of Swami Vivekananda's 160th birth anniversary was organised in our College on 12 January, 2024 to observe the National Youth Day in a befitting manner. The programme commenced with garlanding the portrait of Swami Vivekananda by Prof.Tirtha Mondal, the NSS programme officer of the College. Then floral tribute was given by others present. Prof.Tirtha Mondal, in his brief speech, called upon the students and NSS volunteers to get acquainted with the life and thoughts of this iconic personality like Swami Vivekananda and urged for implementation of these in practical life. When India was under British rule, Swami Vivekananda was the inspiration of our freedom fighters. People of our country, even after seventy five years of freedom from British rule, are yet to get rid of the fundamental problems. So Swami Vivekananda is still a role model for the youths of present day India. Two of the NSS volunteers presented a patriotic song relevant to the occasion. Around sixty students and NSS volunteers were present in the programme. Deepsikha, a third semester student and NSS volunteer commendably performed the anchoring job throughout the programme. The programme ended with vote of thanks delivered by Prof.Tirtha Mondal.
