Reports:

Amidst the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, the week-long workshop on "Bookkeeping Basics: Efficient Record-Keeping" organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) at Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya Chittaranjan commenced on May 11, 2020. The inaugural session commenced at 11:00 am on the ZOOM online platform, witnessing a significant turnout of staff, students, and interested individuals from neighboring institutions. The special lecture on the opening day drew considerable attention and participation. The inauguration was graced by Dr. Sagar Chandra Bandyopadhyay, Hon'ble Teacher in Charge of the College and Associate Professor, Department of Bengali, along with Prof. Samayita Dutta, the college librarian. Dr. Bandyopadhyay presided over the event, emphasizing the importance of efficient record-keeping in academic and professional settings. Prof. Dutta shared valuable insights on the significance of maintaining accurate records in educational institutions. She enlightened the participants on the foundational principles of efficient record-keeping. Prof. Tamal Chatterjee, Assistant Professor of Bengal Institute of Science and Technology took the stage on the second day, delving into advanced topics and strategies for maintaining accurate financial records. The fourth day of the workshop featured Mr. Prabir Kumar Pal, Accounting Professional, KC Ghosh and Company, who empowered the participants with the skills and knowledge needed to maintain accurate, transparent, and compliant financial records, ultimately contributing to the success and sustainability of organizations across various sectors. The final day of the workshop, led by Mr. Samar Pal, freelance accountant focused on summarizing key takeaways from the week's sessions. Registered participants were tasked with delivering short presentations on predetermined topics, followed by an interactive question-answer session to further elucidate concepts and address queries. At the conclusion of the workshop, participants were recognized for their active engagement and dedication with Certificates of Participation. The event culminated with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Apurbo Kumar Roy, the Coordinator of the IQAC, expressing gratitude to all involved in making the workshop a success.
