

RAGHUNATH SIROMANI CENTRE FOR INDIAN KNOWLEDGE SYSTEM:

The Raghunath Siromani Centre for Indian Knowledge System of Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya is disseminating Indian Knowledge System among the students in interdisciplinary areas to keep them aware of the Indian Epistemic System –Pramanbad, Indian Metaphysical System- PadarthaTattva, and Indian Ethical System-Niti tattva , Indian Logic-Anikhshik, Vedic Mathematics, Yoga, Life care and well-being, Arthasastra,Ayurveda.

This Centre is named after Raghunatha Shiromani (born c. 1475, Nabadwipa, Bengal, India, died c. 1550) was a philosopher and logician who brought the Navya- Nyaya school, representing the final development of Indian formal logic, to its zenith of analytic power. His most famous work in logic was the Tattva-chintamani-didhiti, a commentary on the works of Gangesha, founder of the Navya- Nyaya school.

VISION:

To be a centre in preserving, promoting, and advancing the knowledge and wisdom embedded within India's rich cultural heritage.

MISSION:

To Preserve, Promote, Foster interdisciplinary research, and safeguard India's diverse traditional knowledge systems for future generations.

OBJECTIVES:

1. To Preserve Traditional Knowledge such as Ayurveda, Yoga, Vedas, Sanskrit literature, traditional arts and crafts, indigenous sciences, and more
2. To promote Indigenous Practices into modern contexts, fostering a deeper appreciation for India's cultural heritage.
3. To encourage Research and Innovation and application of Indian knowledge systems in various fields, including healthcare, agriculture, environment, and technology.

4. Cultural Revival and Heritage Conservation by revitalizing traditional arts, crafts, music, dance, and other cultural expressions.